The City and Vicinity

Mrs. George E. Cooper is reported as being quite ill.

Misses Leota and Vere Patton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Locke the first of the week.

Mrs. Morgan's Corvallis Business College is now located over the Black-ledge furniture store.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Wilson, who have been spending several weeks at Newport, are at home again.

C. C. Bryant, of Albany, was in Corvallis yesterday adjusting insurance loss on the A. J. Johnson barn.

Chester Henkle, of Philomath, formerly undertaker in this city, attended the State Convention of Undertakers at Portland this week.

Mrs. John Rickard and Miss Lillian Ranney left today for San Francisco, where Miss Ranney will take up the study of music during the winter.

Mrs. Alden Van Epps, Mrs. Frank Root and Mrs. J. H. Dannatt, of Clinton, Iowa, were guests of Mrs. C. L.
Tallman and Mrs. J. C. Morse north of town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maheur, of Sherwin county, Mo., are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Locke. They will leave shortly for Portland and Seattle another northwest points en-route home.

Byron Taylor left today for Hillsboro, where he will be operator and ticket agent for the Oregon Electric.
This position looks good to him, as Hillsboro is less than an hour from Portland, and the cars run every two hours.

The recent rain has made the county roads rather bad for the autos. Yesterday the roads were little more than a streak of water and chauffeurs had no way of telling how deep "chuck-holes" were. This caused considerable inconvenience.

The auxiliary to the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, of the Christain church, will have their regular business meeting and social hour tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the church.
All members of the society and ladies of the church are earnestly requested to be present.

A. L. Fortson, at Fourth and Tyler, has over 70 fine wonderberry bushes all heavily laden with fine fruit. It is said that he was first to introduce the berry here. He has a letter from Luther Burbank, Santa Rosa, California, complimenting him on the quality of a crate of berries sent down for test.

Patrons of the Western Union telegraph company using different codes with which to send their messages will be compelled to shorten their words after the 1st of December. The code words are to be limited to no more than five letters to a word. Some of the codewords now contain a string of letters two inches in length, enough to make four ordinary words.

A. L. Stevenson is at Blodgett today crying a sale, and has two more on hand this week. Yesterday Mr. Stevenson sold Dick Lyle's goods, over in Linn county. He began at 10:30 and by 3 o'clock had sold out, a total of $1,300 and all spot cash. Some of the chickens sold at 60 cents each and one of the cows brought $71. Good prices were secured for practically everything.
All of the recent sales have gone splendidly, generally satisfactory to the salemaker. This speaks well for the condition of the farmers' pocketbooks.

Mayor Watters is in receipt of a letter from L. C. Chadwick, Grangeville, Idaho, in which it is stated that Idaho county went "dry" at the election in August. Idaho county comprises an area larger than that of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Vermont and Delaware, and this embraces a large mining territory. Miners are supposed to be in favor of the saloon but they voted "dry." Grangeville, a city with eight saloons, cast a 60 per cent vote in favor of no-license. When Idaho miners vote against the saloon there is little hope for traffic elsewhere.
The letter from Mr. Chadwick comes as a matter of thanks for letters written by Mayor Watters during the campaign in Idaho county.

Scrimmage work on O. A. C.'s gridiron will begin next Saturday. Until then it will be difficult to come to any sort of conclusion about the prospects.
Several new men are out and in practice they are taking hold of things readily, but only scrimmages will determine how well they can handle themselves.
Metzger has seven men he can work into a team, but he is badly in need of four good men. They may be among those now at practice, but they will have to demonstrate it. To have conditions as ideal as one might desire, Metzzy should have not less than eighteen or twenty cracker-jacks to pick from. The great teams of the east have double and treble that number.
A great deal of enthusiasm is manifest about the gridiron but enthusiasm counts for little unless the material is there.

That the Willamette will be open for boats in about two weeks' is the expectation of those who keep track of such matters.

A short time ago several people heard Dr. J. R. N. Bell say he hoped the city council would order him to remove the shack or shacks from his Second street business property.
Further, that if he did not do the removing when so ordered; he hoped the officials would put him in jail. The council has finally ordered Dr. Bell to remove one of his shacks—the old bottling works—and though that order was issued at least two weeks ago, Dr.
Bell has not yet indicated that he intends to meet the emergency. O. J. Blackledge has halfway agreed to do what he should do with the disgraceful old fire-trap across from his store, but Dr. Bell, who hoped so many things, is weighed in the balance and found wanting. It is now up to Chief Wells to get a squad of twenty men and go to the Presbyterian manse after the man who expressed a desire to serve a term in jail in case he didn't do certain things.

TRESPASSERS.

As two of my registered sheep were shot and killed by hunters last year, and recently two of my best ewes were torn up by hunting dogs, I have therefore given strict orders to my men employed to gather evidence to prosecute all trespassers with gun or dog found on my premises, and particularly to shoot and kill all dogs found on the farms. So that no one may be taken by surprise, I publish this notice.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD is hereby offered for the arrest and conviction under section 36 on page 419 of the session laws of 1909, of any person found trespassing by hunting with gun or dogs on my farms.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD is also offered for the arrest and conviction of any person for tearing down, cutting, destroying or defacing this notice, posted on my farms Sept. 30, 1909.
